AUBUSSON TAPESTRIES

Subject — Emperor Alexander of Macedonia.

Made at the factory at Aubusson, France, about 1610. Formerly owned by the Marquise Castellane. Sold at Hotel Druot, Paris, together with the contents of the palace, in 1901. Vouched for by the administrator of the estate, Mon. Mignol, of Paris

- 813 Represents the Emperor, helmeted and in armor, standing with the globe of the world in hand, ambitious to conquer
- 814 Battle scene by water, showing crude style of ships, implements of warfare used at the time

~~182~~ Every article sold as it is, and at so much each, nothing sold by the lot. No reduction or rebate on any pretence whatever.

815 Returning on horseback as conqueror, followed by the Fates, who are about to crown him with laurel wreath

816 Triumphal entry into Greece, laurel crowned, riding famous steed, accompanying attendants, paying homage, populace throwing roses, incense offering, etc.

Border showing military armor, musical instruments of the period. In the coloring of these panels, vegetable dyes were used which has preserved their wonderful brilliancy to the present day, being in the same condition as when removed from the palace, without restoratives

The two cuts in the battle scene were made when placed originally in the palace over the fireplace. Extremely picturesque. Very difficult to find at the present day, being historically correct

817 Aubusson tapestry panel made at factory at Aubusson early in the Seventeenth Century

Subject—Scene from palace at Moscow. Coloring soft tones in blue and grays. Foliage features of great attraction.

818 Old Flemish tapestry about the Seventeenth Century, subject, The Chase

 Every article sold as it is, and at so much each, nothing sold by the lot. No reduction or rebate on any pretence whatever.
